

Fulbright Alumni Ambassador Workshop

Are you interested in teaching or conducting research abroad?

Learn more about the Fulbright Scholar Program in a workshop with Dr. Spencer Salas, Fulbright Scholar to Romania, 1998, Guatemala, 2007, and South Africa, 2013

East Carolina University, College of Education,
Speight Building, RM# 203, Wednesday 12 October 2016

Session One: 1:00PM – 2:30PM

Session Two: 5:00PM – 6:30PM

In this workshop, Fulbright Ambassador Dr. Spencer Salas, Associate Professor at The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, will share his experiences as a Fulbright Scholar to South Africa in 2013. Scholars like Salas return to their campuses with new perspectives on their fields and fresh ideas for further international engagement. Faculty and administrators will learn about the benefits of Fulbright and the impact it can have personally and professionally. Find out more about Salas' Fulbright experience at <http://www.cies.org/alumni-ambassadors/spencer-salas>

The Fulbright Ambassador Program trains and utilizes a select group of Fulbright Scholar alumni from the full spectrum of U.S. academic disciplines, higher education institutions, and geographic regions to serve as representatives for the Fulbright Scholar Program at campus workshops and academic conferences across the United States.

Interested faculty and administrators are encouraged to attend this FREE session.
