

I AM @ ECU

I AM focuses on celebrating the diverse and intersectional identities of prospective students and family members. I AM offers a space for students to learn about the resources and organizations at ECU that are salient to their many identities. Attendees will also connect with other prospective and current students. I AM is inclusive to students from all identities, here are a few of the many identities that will be present in the space: Latinx, Black, Indigenous, Asian, LGBTQIA+, First-generation, students from low-income households, and students from rural counties in North Carolina.
